Chris Regner

That's My Boy!

May 15 — June 11, 2021

Opening on Saturday, May 15th at 12pm

Chris Regner's new body of work explores his struggles with masculinity, paternal role model deficiency, and his search to fill that void. Childhood memories are woven with fiction where his rigorous imagination generates boldly colored, meticulously painted, disturbingly surreal portraits. Chris recently received his MFA from RISD. This will be his first solo exhibition. An in-depth interview with Chris was featured in Juxtapoz.
